DISCUSS REDISTRICTING PROCESS; POSSIBLE ACTIONS

Andy Faust told the committee he did not change a lot on the map, but there was concern with board members that some of the lines moved too much and put some in other supervisory districts, which would result in two board members running against each other because the change put them in the same district. The committee discussed possibly dropping down to 19 districts. Andy will work on what that would like and bring it back to the next meeting.
