VIOLATION UPDATES.

Jeannie Fannin updated the committee on the violations that have come through the office in the last two weeks. The office has been successful in getting compliance in many of the violations.

DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION ON CAMPING TRANSFER UNITS

Jeannie Fannin explained that vault privy requirements only call for a 200 -gallon tank. She thought the committee could lower the 500- gallon requirement we have for the camping transfer units. Motion by Mike Miller to change the 500-gallon requirement to 250-gallon, second by Brian Piasini. All present voting (AYE). Motion carried.

DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION ON SHORELAND ZONING CHANGES

Jeannie Fannin updated the committee on the legislative changes that have been made to NR 115, therefore requiring the counties to update their ordinances. Motion by Brian Piasini to approve the changes and forward to a public hearing to be held July 18, 2022, second by Mike Miller. All present voting (AYE). Motion carried.

ZONING/SANITARY 101

Jeannie Fannin presented a power point created by Lynn Markham, UWSP Center for Land Use Development regarding zoning and impervious surface standards, and also a power point created by Cece Rudinski from the Dept. of Safety and Professional Services regarding sanitary systems.
